History

Carleton University is unique within the Ontario university system for several reasons. It was founded in 1942 through a community movement, initiated by the YMCA, to provide non-sectarian education for the thousands of men and women who came to Ottawa in support of the war effort. Because of these roots, Carleton has, throughout its history, attempted to meet the needs of the community by making its programs and resources widely available through innovative technologies and life-long learning opportunities.

Today, Carleton stands among the best comprehensive universities in Canada. It is a dynamic, research-intensive university, committed to ensuring an outstanding learning experience for its more than 23,000 students. The University offers 65 programs of study in areas as diverse as public affairs, journalism, art and culture, engineering, high technology, and international studies.

Carleton awarded its first degrees in 1946, three in public administration and three in journalism. Sixty years later, the University has reached another milestone as we celebrate our 100,000th graduate.

Today's Convocation ceremony (the calling together of the academic assembly) has its roots in university traditions of medieval Europe.

Coat of Arms

The coat of arms was presented to the University by His Excellency The Right Honourable Ramon John Hnatyshyn, Governor General of Canada, on November 15, 1992, as part of Carleton's 50th anniversary celebrations. It is described in heraldic terms as follows: "Sable a maple leaf Gules irradiated and charged with an open book Argent; And for a Crest: on a wreath Argent Sable and Gules a Phoenix Gules quilled and beaked Or issuing from flames proper; And for a Motto: Ours the Task Eternal; And for Supporters: on a grassy mount on either side a raven Sable beaked and membered or armed Gules."

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all who wish to partake of it. The phoenix, the legendary eternal bird, symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the University when he was 78 years old. "Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in with the eternal quality of the phoenix.

And so, the Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

The Mace

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In the days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the 16th century it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of an assembly. It is used on ceremonial occasions to signify the right of an individual or institution to perform a certain function—in the case of universities, to grant degrees.

At Convocation, the mace is carried ahead of the Chancellor as he enters and leaves each ceremony. During the ceremony the mace is displayed on a special stand as an embodiment of the authority of the University.

Carleton's mace was presented to the University in 1976 as a gift from the Chair of the Board of Governors at that time, Mr. Hyman Soloway. It is a silver-plated staff approximately three feet long. At the upper end there is a bowl marked with the University's coat of arms and the University motto in both Latin and English—"Opera Nobis Aeterna" and "Ours the Task Eternal." From the upper portion of the bowl rises a phoenix. Traditional oak leaves surround the lower end of the staff.

The Diploma

The diploma the graduates receive at Convocation is the certificate of qualification which publishes the fact that the student has fulfilled all the requirements and completed the prescribed course of study for the degree. As the senior academic legislative body of the University, it is the Senate which has determined whether the requirements have been met. The signatures of both the Chancellor and the President of the University appear on the diploma: the Chancellor because of his role in conferring the degree, and the President who, as Chair of Senate, certifies that Senate has enacted the required motion to award the degree. The Seal of the University is affixed to the diploma as a mark of authentication.

Academic Dress

The academic dress of Carleton University results from a compromise between that found in the ancient foundations of Britain and Canada and the American Intercollegiate Code. All three hoods—bachelor's, master's, and doctor's—are of the simple or Oxford shape. The bachelor's hood is made of black stuff; the master's and doctor's are made of black silk and all are lined with silver silk with two chevrons, one of red and one of black. From bachelor's to doctor's, the hoods are progressively longer and opened to show more and more of the lining.

The velvet border of the hoods denotes the degrees granted according to the following colour combinations: applied science is orange with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; architecture is cerise; architectural studies is cerise with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; arts is white; commerce is camel brown; computer science is royal blue; engineering is orange; humanities is white with a red cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; industrial design is dark cardinal; international business is camel brown with a red cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; journalism is white with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; management studies and business administration is camel brown with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; mathematics is hunter green; music is venetian pink; public administration is peacock blue; public affairs and policy management is teal with a gold cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; science is golden yellow; social work is cream; and doctor of philosophy is purple.

The master's and bachelor's gowns, to be worn with the above hoods, are of full length, made of black stuff, with a gathered yoke behind, and long open-fronted sleeves. The doctoral gown is of full-style, made of fine royal blue cloth with facings of light blue silk, with a full gathered yoke behind, and closed sleeves with an opening at the elbows.

The two shades of blue in the doctoral gown are those of the United Nations, and are meant to recognize the University's long-standing interest, from its earliest years, in international affairs and issues. The colours were chosen when the University awarded its first honorary degree, in 1954, to the second Secretary General of the United Nations, the late Dag Hammarskjöld. The tradition of awarding honorary degrees to Secretaries General of the United Nations has continued since that time.

The gown of the honorary Doctor of Laws, Literature, Music, Science, Engineering, Architecture or Fine Arts is a full robe with bell-shaped sleeves. It is made of fine royal blue cloth with facings and sleeves in light blue silk. The hood is made of the same material as the gown, has the same lining as that for the degrees granted by examination, and is bordered with dark mauve for the degree of Doctor of Laws; vibrant blue for the degree of Doctor of Literature; venetian pink for the degree of Doctor of Music; red for the degree of Doctor of Science; orange for the degree of Doctor of Engineering; cerise for the degree of Doctor of Architecture; and dark cardinal for the degree of Doctor of Fine Arts.

Alumni Park

Weather permitting, today's Convocation reception will be held outdoors in Alumni Park, which was dedicated in 1992 at the initiative of the Carleton University Alumni Association to commemorate the University's 50th anniversary. The picturesque fountain pool, lush flower gardens, tall trees, and a spectacular view of the Rideau River make this park a favourite meeting place for students, faculty, and staff, and an excellent location to take commemorative photos.

The Presiding Officer of Convocation is the Chancellor of the University, Marc Garneau, C.C., C.D., B.Sc., Ph.D., LL.D., P.Eng.

The Honourable Frederick E. Gibson

The Honourable Frederick E. Gibson,
Q.C., B.Com., LL.B.

The Founders Award was inaugurated in June 1996 to recognize and pay tribute to those individuals who have made significant contributions to the advancement of Carleton University through their dedication, generosity, and commitment to the values of the University. It is awarded annually, when merited, at Spring Convocation.

"It is people, not buildings, that make an institution; and if we can put our hearts to it we can do something worthwhile."

*Henry Marshall Tory,
Carleton University founder, June 18, 1942*

Carleton University is pleased to present the Honourable Frederick E. Gibson with the 2006 Founders Award, the University's highest non-academic award, in recognition of his tireless devotion and commitment to the development of the university.

Mr. Frederick Gibson received his Bachelor of Commerce degree in 1956 from Carleton College, where he was a member of the Undergraduate Student Government Association, and recipient of the Henry Marshall Tory and Honour Society awards. He attended Osgoode Hall Law School and for five years was associated with the law firm Honeywell, Baker, Gibson, Wotherspoon, Lawrence and Diplock in Ottawa. In 1965, Mr. Gibson joined the Federal Department of Justice, where he served until 1981 and was appointed Queen's Counsel. He was the Deputy Solicitor General of Canada from 1982-86 and chair of the National Parole Board from 1988-93.

In 1993, Mr. Gibson was appointed a judge of the Federal Court of Canada, Trial Division, and ex officio member of the Court of Appeal and later in the same year, a judge of the Court Martial Appeal Court of Canada. He is now a supernumerary judge of the Federal Court. During his busy and distinguished career, Mr. Gibson continued to be involved with Carleton as the president of the Carleton University Alumni Association (1965-66) and as a member of the Board of Governors (1967-76 and 1979-88). During his years as a member of the Board, he was often asked to take on special and delicate assignments. A quick study, Mr. Gibson was able to challenge recommendations and push for solutions to difficulties for the betterment of the University. He was a strong supporter of the student members of the Board and their associations.

Tuesday, June 13, 9:30 a.m.

*O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.*

The University Medal for Distinguished Research

Established in 2006, the University Medal for Distinguished Research is awarded to a member of faculty in recognition of his/her outstanding accomplishment in research and scholarly contributions that expand the boundaries of knowledge and enrich the lives of students and the community. The purpose of the award is to honour those whose research is recognized nationally and internationally as of the highest calibre.

David Sinclair, Professor of Physics at Carleton University, is the Principal Investigator and Director of SNOLAB, the permanent underground facility for the Sudbury Neutrino Observatory (SNO) experiment, which is being constructed two kilometres underground in a working mine in Sudbury. Sinclair and his research team are conducting research that addresses fundamental questions in elementary particle physics, astrophysics, and the evolution of the Universe. Sinclair returned to Canada to participate in the SNO project after 16 years of teaching and research at Oxford University. At Oxford, he researched the structure of nuclei and also designed the first dedicated carbon dating facility that was used to date the Shroud of Turin.

The University Medal for Distinguished Service

Established in 2006, the University Medal for Distinguished Service honours faculty and staff for outstanding service and contributions to the advancement of the learning and working environment.

Jim Carleton has been an exemplary member of the Carleton community for 27 years. From his first job as an electronics assembler and then programmer/technologist to his present day role as hardware manager and computer support person for the Physics department, Jim has always provided invaluable technical expertise that has made a real difference in the lives of those he works with. He is an innovator who worked on the instrumentation for the ultrasound laboratory and installed some of the original equipment, which is still going strong 15 years later. He also developed electronic laboratory apparatus for a number of departments but primarily for the Psychology department.

Jim Carleton has many interests outside of the University, including photography, kayaking, cycling, gardening, physical fitness, home renovations, computer and home electronics, and travelling. He has been on many interesting trips in recent years, including ones to Africa and the United Kingdom.

*O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.*

*O Canada! Terre de nos aïeux,
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux.
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix.
Ton histoire est une épopée,
Des plus brillants exploits.
Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.*

While maintaining an outstanding academic record, Dasa has been a key member of the Carleton Ravens Women's Basketball team.
